

Preliminary Program 26.01.2012

Great Program in commemoration of the BERLIN Airlift!

The Program is being developed by integrating various clubs e.g. USMVC e.V., West Alliierte in Berlin e.V., Förderverein des Luftwaffenmuseum der Bundeswehr e.V., Kameradschaft 248. GSU e.V., Stiftung Luftbrückendank an has not yet been finalized. One fact is for certain: it will be a weekend with lasting memories!

Do. 10.05.2012 (Arrival day)

from 10:00h Arrival of the participants at BERLIN-PATROL camp in the Air Force Museum in Berlin Gatow

Briefing, set up camp, Catering, free driving to points of interest, guided tours in the Museum
20:00h Welcome by the Commander of the General Steinhoff Kaserne, Get together

Fr. 11.05.2012 (British Day)

10:00h: British Flag ceremony – start of the day

10:00h – 14:30h "Control point" orientation tour on former patrol routes in Berlin

Visit of the last Commander of the British Sector Maj-Gen. Sir Robert Corbett ret., Air Chief Marshal ret. Evans RAAF, Col. ret. Gail Halvorsen USAF. Exklusive program points, e.g. Rollout of the restored Douglas DC 3 of the Royal Australian Airforce which participated in the Airlift until 1949

18:00h – 22:00h Barbecue (included) with ca. 600 British Berlin-Veterans, clubs and veteran associations with live music program (e.g. Black Kilts Bagpipes, Royal Corps of Transport), Briefing for the next day

Sa. 12.05.2012 (American Day)

07:00h: American Flag ceremony – start of the day

BERLIN-PATROL ride to the Airlift Airfields Tempelhof und Tegel (3 Airports in one day)

Participation in several ceremonies and visit of the private museum of West Alliierte in Berlin e.V. (Schöneberg)

18:00h – 22:00h American Night Open Air with „EB Davis and the Superband“ + DJ, Catering or own cooking awards, raffle

So. 13.05.2012 (Open Day)

10:00h – 18:00h Open day on the grounds of the Air Force Museum with various program points, music and clubs engaged in „allied“ and / or sports or culture. BERLIN-PATROL dance, Catering.

Alternatively: independent drives to points of interest in Berlin

22:00h nights rest

Mo, 14.05.2012 (Departure Day)

News will be posted on the website www.berlin-patrol.com or will be communicated on site. For any questions please contact scout@berlin-patrol.com. The Air Force Museum will be opened to public during the day from 10:00 am to 18:00pm.