Motto 2016:	„1987 – 2017 – Tear Down This Wall“

1 Eligible

1.1 All types of military vintage cars (wheels – no tracks), which

- were in service between 1945 to 1994 in the armies of the USA, GB, F, Soviet Union or Germany (Bundeswehr)
- are registered for use on public roads according to national laws and which are insured
- are in technical and optical good original condition to give an impression of the original former military standard
- carry fire extinguisher and a tarp or suitable equipment to prevent environmental pollution by oil leakage

1.2 Persons

Persons of any nationality, belief, age or gender. Persons under the age of 18 may participate under responsibility of their parent or guardian. Participation without military vehicle, i.e. as reenactor is possible

We point out that the camp site is located outside the “Umweltzone” (ecological protection zone of the center of Berlin). Driving into the city of Berlin with vehicles which do not comply with oldtimer regulations (> 30 years) is against the law. Driving outside the “Umweltzone” within Berlin, in Potsdam and surrounding rural areas is possible.

2 Registration

Registration of participants and vehicles is possible only by using the form “registration 2017” which can be downloaded on the website www.berlin-patrol.com accepting these terms of participation. The recognition of these terms and conditions will be verified on arrival at the camp with autograph signature by each person.

The registration data will be processed by the operator and third party USMVC e.V. acting in his name according to legal requirements. USMVC e.V. is eligible to store the data and to contact the registering party in any case coherent with the event.

3 Registration closing

Registration closes on July 31st 2017 22:00h or prior to this date, if decided differently by the operator. Such change would have to be communicated in writing and made public on the website. Maximum number of participating vehicles is 100.

4 Registration Fee

Participation in BERLIN-PATROL® camp is free of charge regardless of the duration of the individual participation.

The operator reserves the right to refuse entries without giving reasons. In all cases of exclusion during the event due to violation of the terms and conditions forfeit will result in the order to leave the grounds.

5 Arrival / departure

Arrival is possible from August 31st 2017 12:00h to September 3rd 2017 20:00h

Departure has to be completed by 4th of September 2017 12:00h

The camp site is accessible during this time through the main gate of the General Steinhoff Barracks, Kladower Damm 182, 14089 Berlin. Participants who wish to stay prior or who want to extend their visit, can book public campsites or hotels and B&B nearby.

6 Registry / Security

On arrival at the camp site the vintage cars and the participating persons will be identified according to their given registration data. This includes possible pulling vehicles and trailers. All participants will receive a identification bracelet, which has to be carried at all times until the final departure. At some program points it will be an entry ticket and serves for general identification as participant.

Vintage cars will be marked with self adhesive stickers on the wind shield. With this sticker they have access to the camp site / to the military grounds.

Security requirements on the site will be given and enforced by the operator and the military police.

7 Included Services

- General organisation
- Starting number stickers and registration
- Provision of camp space
- Provision of secured parking for trailers and pulling civil vehicles
- Toilets, Water, showers
- Participation in the program of Flugplatzfest 2017

8 Accomodation / Clothing

Accomodation will be possible in participants' own military tents / civil tents or campers. Every participant will be assigned a space to park the vintage car, to set up a tent or camper. There will be a separation of military „green camp“ and civilian „white camp“ equipment. Every participant is asked to state his preferences when registering.

As an alternative small hotels and bead & breakfast can be booked in the surrounding area. Proposals can be given upon request to e-mail scout@berlin-patrol.com.

Wearing uniforms is not mandatory. Participation in BERLIN-PATROL® ride in uniform or civilian clothes matching the vehicle and the time era are highly appreciated. General statement: if you wear uniform, make it authentic. No mixing of military equipment with civil components, no mixing of equipment of different Armies or nationalities, no phantasy uniforms. The operator reserves the right to regulate appearance and outfits prior to program points within the city and to ask for changes if necessary.

Look sharp, act sharp, be sharp.

Current uniforms with ranks, medals and honoring marks may only be worn / carried by persons eligible to do so (valid permission to wear ranks and uniforms of that army they represent). Since active military personnel, veterans and reserve units of different armies will participate the operator can order civilian clothes or the covering of ranks at certain occasions to those participants who do not wear proper ranks. In this case participating members are kindly asked to obey immediately to prevent misunderstandings with veterans or active military.

9 Supplies in the camp

Generally cooking and food supply is to be run by each participating party individually. Gas-, Fuel-stoves and Grills may be used to cook. NO OPEN SINGLE FIRES! Please keep extinguishers handy and act carefully.

On the camp site there will be catering offering beverages (beer, non-alcohol) and food at moderate cost. This will be run by the kitchen operator of the military installations.

10 Operation / garbage

Supermarkets and bakery are in reach by car as are gas-stations that sell vintage compatible fuel. All participants are requested to collect their own garbage in plastic bags which will be handed out. Collection and disposal will be organized at a central point.

11 Security

In the camp there will be specially assigned helpers. Their orders are to be followed in any case. This also applies, of course, for orders by Police and Military Police, too. In the interest of the participants and of the event any single person not obeying the orders can be expelled from the grounds and the participation.

Medical service: there are first-aid personnel in the camp and the emergency ambulance is guaranteed by adjacent hospitals. In any case of emergency please contact the operator's headquarter / command post on the camp site.

Speed limit: a good driver knows his limits! On the camp ground speed limit is walking speed / 3 mph. Every driver is responsible for his vehicle, his own condition and that of his crew.

No driving after 22:00h on the camp grounds. Exceptions are to be met with the operator / command post.

No loud music, running generators or other emission after 22:00h (Ruling of the local authorities for Environment) Exceptions are to be coordinated with the operator.

Minors under 18 years: parent or guardian are held liable for their action. Minors must not drive motorized vehicles in the camp.

Dogs: sorry pets may not be brought.
